VOL. 31. No. 52

MY PAST AND PROSPECTIVE PATRONS

I have just closed a deal whereby I have purchased a drugless sanitarium and a chiropractic practice at the city of Taylor, Texas, and will take possession of same September 1st. I take this opportunity of respectfully suggesting that all persons in this community who planned to take advantage of my professional services should come in at the earliest possible moment so as to get the maximum number of adjustments between now and the time I close my Hondo office. I make no charge for examination or consultation, and whether you decide to take treatment or not, I will be very glad to see you at my office and you the benefit of a careful examination. I can supply the names of scores of cured patients in this community who have been treated at my office. Office hours are from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., except Sunday. I also maintain office hours at D'Hanis from 6 to 10 p. m. Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings, at the residence of J. L. McLeese. Same careful treatments given at both offices. Lady in attendance.

Dr. McLeese Goes to Taylor September First.

This week, Dr. J. M. McLeese, who has been practicing chiropractic in Hondo during the past year, closed a deal whereby he purchased a drugless sanitarium and chiropractic practice in the city of Taylor, Texas. He announces that he will leave Hondo to take charge of the new work on, or about, September 1st.

Dr. McLeese has had a large and successful practice in Hondo which was growing larger each month, but Taylor offers a much larger field for his services, and the acquisition of the sanitarium will give him an opportunity to take cases which could not be otherwise accommodated.

Draft Day in Hondo.

Last Friday, the day designated as draft day for the new army which the government is organizing, created only a passive interest here as it was known that no numbers had been received from Washington, and then, too, it was pretty generally understood that every registrant would be called, and the only interest manifested was in who would be first called out. When the daily papers came in Saturday morning there was a diligent search made and it was soon discovered that quite a number of our boys had been drafted, but as the board here is without official information (the master sheet), there is no way of determining with accuracy who will be first called. This information is looked for at any time and may be in the hands of the board before this paper is in the hands of its readers. Before this information is available it is mere speculation to say just who will have to answer the first call. We think it quite probable, however, should the war continue for any great length of time that every registrant physically fit will be called into the service.

It seems from statements given out by those in authority that Medina county's quota for the first army to be assembled will approximate eighty-seven men, including those who volunteered up to a certain time. If this understanding is correct then it leaves but a few men to be drawn under the draft act from this county.

It is well known that there has been a large number of volunteers, every branch of the service having a representative from this county, and those in authority should see to it that this county gets credit for every volunteer that has entered the service. It is well known that quite a number from this county have enlisted in organizations in other counties, particularly Bexar, and that there is a disposition to claim them as volunteers from that county, thereby relieving that number of registrants from the draft act from that county. Some of our citizens have protested in telegrams both to the Governor and Adjutant General but thus far no acknowledgment of their telegram has been received. Should no relief be offered in this matter by the officers appealed to it is probable the services of Congressman Garner will be invoked.

The young men of Medina county never shirk a duty, but it not right that burdens rightly belonging to others should be thrust upon them, and our whole people should protest against such an imposition.

To the Public.

The Ladies of the Cemetery Association of Hondo did not have a dinner during the spring term of the district court here, as has been their usual custom for several years in the past, on account of the high price of food as well as other reasons. But the ladies would not have the public think that they do not intend to continue to keep the cemeteries cleaned and in as good condition as possible for them, and with your assistance it can be done. Last year the Association paid $214.20 for cleaning both cemeteries, and this year amounts to a little more, so any co-operation or assistance at any time will be greatly appreciated, as it has been in the past, for the members of the Association are very grateful for any help which you may give at any time.

LADIES CEMETERY ASSOCIATION.

Church Fair and Dinner.

The annual church fair and dinner for the benefit of Holy Cross Church at D'Hanis, will take place on Saturday and Sunday, August 4 and 5th. A sumptuous dinner and supper will be served on both days for the reasonable sum of 35 cents. The awarding of the 25 beautiful prizes will take place Sunday evening. Everyone who has attended one of these affairs in the past know what a treat is in store for them. Remember the date and place, August 4 and 5th at D'Hanis.

$500.00 Reward

I will pay the above reward for the arrest and conviction of the party or parties who are stealing my steers.
D. W. SHORT.

Summer Normal Closed.

The Hondo Summer Normal closed Thursday and was undoubtedly the best school of the kind ever conducted in Hondo. The faculty report the student body as one of the hardest working ever assembled, and the faculty was composed of experienced and enthusiastic educators, two necessary essentials to make a success of a school of this character. The last batch of examination papers were forwarded yesterday morning to the State Department of Education at Austin, and it is the prediction of those who conducted the school that there will be few if any failures.

The students and faculty have all returned to their respective homes. The people of Hondo enjoyed having them here, and trust that our late visitors will look back upon their short stay here as one of the most profitable and pleasant epochs of their lives.

Cliff Cullings.

The weather man was a very welcome guest in this section Friday and Saturday, raining as much as two inches in parts. Most everything shows quite an improvement already, especially the people's faces have a much brighter appearance since. Ha! ha! The Cliff Twenty-two Rifle Club had a prize shooting Sunday last. Quite a crowd was present, altho' the rain kept a number of them from coming. Fifty members of different clubs participated in the shooting. Plenty of refreshments of all kinds and barbecued meat was served on the grounds during the day. There were too many for me to try to mention names of those present.

H. F. Wurzbach and son, Alvin, were business visitors here this afternoon.

Messrs. T. Gilliam, Sidney Bonnet and Mr. Christilles of the Lake were here a short time on business, and motored to San Antonio from here in Mr. Christilles' truck.

Messrs. Alfred, John and Walter Benke and Henry Stolte were seen on our streets today.

Mr. Lonnie Brown and family of the C. Schuchart ranch, are moving to San Antonio where the men expect to work for the government.

Mr. Julius Becker made a flying trip to San Antonio today.

H. F. Wurzbach and M. Schuchart hauled several truck loads of lumber from San Antonio to Cliff for the Toll Road Co.

M. Schuchart also hauled a windmill outfit for the C. Schuchart ranch today. He was accompanied by M. T. Schuchart.

Chas. Wehmeyer made a business trip to Cliff this a. m.

The Rain.

After several days of threatening weather rain to the amount of about one inch fell here last Friday night and Saturday, considerably brightening up things. The rain was much heavier in other parts of the county. More rain would be greatly appreciated.

Miss Albertina Hornung came out from San Antonio last Saturday evening and spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Hornung, returning to San Antonio Sunday evening.

SUBSCRIPTION, - $1.50 PER YEAR

SATURDAY, JULY 28, 1917.

This paper is in receipt of a valuable Bulletin from the Warehouse and Marketing Department, Austin, Texas. It is Bulletin 36 which was especially prepared for the housewives of Texas, and it will be sent to any of them purely for the asking. A postal card addressed to the Department will bring a Bulletin to the writer, and not even a postage stamp is needed. The Bulletin is full of tried and approved recipes for canning, drying and preserving all products of the garden and orchard, including berries. It will do to keep, for it will be just as serviceable next year and the year after as now. Persons desiring it should ask for Bulletin 36, and address their request for same to the Warehouse and Marketing Department, Austin, Texas. F. D.

Our idea of an unhappy home is when a suffragette's children sing "Where is our wandering ma tonight?"

JUDGE FOR YOURSELF.

Which is Better—Try an Experiment or Profit by a Hondo Citizen's Experience.

Something new is an experiment. Must be proved to be as represented. The statement of a manufacturer is not convincing proof of merit. But the endorsement of friends is. Now supposing you had a bad back, A lame, weak, or aching one, Would your experiment on it? You will read of many so-called cures. Endorsed by strangers from far-away places. It's different when the endorsement comes from home. Easy to prove local testimony. Read this case: Thos. McCall, carpenter, says: "A short time ago I came down with an attack of kidney trouble. My back ached so severely I could hardly stoop over or lift anything and this made it difficult for me to do my work. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Windrow's Drug Store, helped me right away and two boxes removed the trouble. I am glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to others suffering from disordered kidneys." Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. McCall had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

One trouble with the highbrow is that the back of his head may never be of any use to him.

DIDN'T NEED HER SYMPATHY

"Poor" Messenger Boy Who Had Only Made $21 That Day Shocks Woman Who Pityed Him.

A tiny messenger boy was plodding through the capitol with his hands full of messages: "Oh, dear," said a sympathetic woman who was in the building to see if she couldn't induce several hundred members of congress to grant woman suffrage as a war measure. "Oh, dear. Just look at that dear little boy. Working so hard and getting only a pittance. Come here, little man, and let me see you."

The boy gave her a look which might have been profane if it could be expressed in words, but he pulled up alongside the suffragette and laid himself open to questions.

"How much do you earn?" she asked him.

"Three cents a message."

"Isn't that awful," gasped the woman. "To think a corporation would make a baby like this work for three cents a message. How much have you earned today?"

"Twenty-one dollars," said the boy, as he prepared to march on again. And while the suffragette is being restored to consciousness, let it be explained that the recent flood of telegrams sent to the capitol from every conceivable source protesting against drafts, conscriptions, bonds, wars, tariffs, taxes and everything else has placed the humble messenger boy in the large income-tax-paying class.—Washington Star.

From Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas.

College Station, Texas, July 16, 1917.

Fletcher Davis,
Hondo, Texas.

Dear Sir:-

I am sending herewith a clipping from the Galveston News of recent date. It is a "write-up" by one of the English teachers, Prof. Mayo, concerning the possibilities that await the energetic boy at the college here.

I know of several boys there who would like to come to A. & M. next session but they, like myself, will have to work for at least part of their expenses while they are here. When I read this narrative I thought of them and decided that if you could find room in one of the issues of the Herald for part of this clipping, if not all of it, these boys may read it and be encouraged by it.

I happened to be acquainted with this young man, Mr. Childers. He is here on the campus now working like a little trojan. If he does not amount to something it will not be because he did not try.

I have been receiving the Herald regularly and enjoy reading the news items very much. They bring me nearer home than almost anything that could be sent to me.

Tell all my friends "HELLO" for me. Pardon my intimacy but I feel as though all Hondo people are my friends.

I thank you for your trouble and past, present and future kindnesses.

Yours sincerely,

J. C. HORGER.

Following is the clipping:

Poor Boys Can Get Education.

Student at A. & M. College Shows How by Painstaking Efforts it Can be Accomplished.

College Station, Tex., July 12.—"Any country boy, no matter how poor and inexperienced, can earn his own education at the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas," says Raymond R. Childers of Jasper, who in July, 1914, came to College Station with no high school training, but with a determination to get a college education if it took him the rest of his life. Though Childers still has hard work before him, his way is blazed, and he is fairly on the road toward his degree in veterinary medicine.

Being entirely without resources when he arrived at College Station, it was necessary for him to support himself all summer, at the same time that he studied to qualify himself for entrance into some of the college courses, and save enough money to pay the regular entrance fees in the fall. His first job was filling silos, but as one piece of work was completed he was forced to move to another, and so was constantly changing from one kind of job to another. The college steam plant employed him in cement work and in firing, and before and after hours he did odd jobs about the premises of campus residents, chopping and stacking wood, looking after chickens and working gardens. When college opened in September Childers found that he had just enough to enter. "I broke just even," he said, "not a nickel left!"

Fortunately, he was able to borrow $50, every cent of which has long since been paid back, from a member of the faculty who had watched and admired his perseverance. In his first year of college, Childers entered the two-year agricultural course. The work was hard for him, and between study and class and drill hours he had to keep up the labor that was paying his expenses. All that session and the next summer he worked for Director Youngblood of

PAINFUL EFFECT OF Rheumatism, Lumbago, Gout.

It is now asserted with confidence that these painful effects due to uric acid in the system are entirely eradicated. A new remedy, called "Anurio," has been discovered by Doctor Pierce, which he finds is 37 times more potent than lithia, and is the cause of a drainage outward of the uric acid with which it comes in contact within the body. It will ward off backache, headache, and the darting pains and aches of rheumatism, lumbago, neuralgia—of those diseases which are caused by too much uric acid, such as gout, asthma, sciatica, renal calculus. "Anurio" prolongs life because old people usually suffer from hardening and thickening of the walls of the arteries, due to the excess of uric acid in the blood and tissues.

Send Dr. Pierce, chief physician at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., 10 cents for large trial package, or obtain 50c. package now at drugists.

the experiment station, having entire charge of his premises, working the garden, building fences, digging ditches and attending to stock.

In September 1915, Childers entered the first year elective course designed to enable men to prepare for freshman work. Having now become known on the campus as a willing and reliable worker, he was given many small jobs of various kinds. He even at times sat up with children when their parents went out at night.

Finally, after a summer's work on a farm at Cleburne, Tex., in September, 1916, Childers, thanks to hard and constant study under the most trying difficulties, found himself ready for freshman work and entered the school of veterinary medicine. He has also secured a position in the veterinary hospital of the college, valuable because it supports him, and more valuable because of the practical and scientific knowledge it gives him. Childers is already a good hand with stock and will go out of the agricultural and mechanical college a most skillful handler of stock diseases.

"It will take me three more years to finish," he says, "but I enjoy my work and I mean to see it through."

Childers is only a striking figure among examples of young Texas ambition, pluck and perseverance who are to be found in this college. That over one-third of the 1,250 students who in 1916-17 attended the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas earned their way or some part of it, is the official statement made by Dr. C. P. Feuntun, head of the department of English and chairman of the committee on student labor. Like Childers, these men while performing their heavy military and scholastic duties do such work as milking, wood-cutting, clearing the campus of trash and sweeping out buildings. About the same record has been made in the matter of student labor every year for ten years and many of the most prominent and popular boys who have graduated from the college have earned a large part of the money that paid their way through.

Constipation and Indigestion.

"I have used Chamberlain's Tablets and must say they are the best I have ever used for constipation and indigestion. My wife also used them for indigestion and they did her good," writes Eugene S. Knight, Willmington, N. C. Chamberlain's Tablets are mild and gentle in their action. Give them a trial. You are certain to be pleased with the agreeable laxative effect which they produce. Obtainable everywhere.

Of course we may be guilty of having done things we are not proud of, but no person can look us in the face and say we ever helped to widen a chain-letter circuit.

An education without a "pull" is like a cart without a horse.

FUR FROM DOMESTIC RABBITS

It is Just as Good as That Which is Imported From Europe and Australia, It is Claimed.

The war has interfered with importations of rabbit or coney fur from Europe and Australia to such an extent that both hatters' fur and coney have risen materially in price. Nevertheless, furriers seem to have made little attempt to find or utilize a home supply. Many, it is said, think that coney is exclusively a foreign product and that American-grown rabbits have inferior pelts of little value. As a matter of fact, American breeders are raising the same kinds of rabbits that produce the best coney of the fur shops. The climate here is as favorable for the production of good fur as in Europe, and if American rabbit skins are of poor quality the true cause is bad management and not climate or breed, it is claimed.

It is declared that as valuable rabbit fur can be produced in America as elsewhere. Probably the quality of the pelts can be greatly improved by selective breeding. The important thing is to induce the fur trade to recognize the importance of the domestic supply and to establish a market for the skins with well-understood standards of preparing and handling. A co-operative plan for exhibiting good dressed skins to the trade should, it is said, aid breeders to accomplish their object.

Delectable Pumpkin Pie.

"Potato" pumpkins are the best to use because they are drier, but in any event the pumpkin must be pared, cut into small pieces and boiled until tender, when it is passed through a colander or vegetable press. For each pie allow one quart of pulp. The rest of the pumpkin may be canned with very little trouble by putting it into quart jars without its being passed through the colander. The water in which it was boiled can be used to fill the jars, new rubbers placed in position and the tops screwed down. In an ordinary icebox this will keep for three or four days without being further "canned."

To one quart of pulp add, while it is hot, a generous piece of butter—a good round tablespoonful. Beat until very light four eggs—or three, if you cannot spare four—without separating, add to this two cupfuls of sugar, one-half cupful of flour, sifted, and beat together. When this is light, add, if possible, a cupful of cream or at least a cupful of rich milk, one teaspoonful of cinnamon, one-half teaspoonful of mace, and one teaspoonful of ginger, sifted, a wineglassful of brandy and two wineglassfuls of sherry; add this to the pumpkin pulp. Be sure to add at least a teaspoonful of salt.

Priest Prevented Massacre.

Father Hugonard is dead at the Indiana school, Lebert, Saskatchewan, where he had lived since 1872. What the white residents of Qu'Appelle valley owe to Father Hugonard, during the troublous times of 1885, few appreciate. Single-handed he kept the Indians of Pike hills and Crooked lakes from a massacre. Star Blanket, one of the big chiefs from Pike hills, had come down and intrenched his braves in the ravines to the north of Lebert. Father Hugonard met the old chief, and practically forced him into submission.

Telephone a Nuisance.

Alexander Graham Bell, inventor of the telephone, interviewed in Washington recently, said: "Not for 30 years has the telephone meant anything to me. My interest ceased when it grew to commercial utility. In fact, I won't have one of the things near me if I can help it. They're a nuisance."

When Boiling Rice.

A little lemon added to the water in which rice is boiled will whiten it and help to keep the grains separated.

Stomach Trouble Cured.

If you have any trouble with your stomach you should take Chamberlain's Tablets. Mr. J. P. Klotz of Edina, Mo., says: "I have used a great many different medicines for stomach trouble, but find Chamberlain's Tablets more beneficial than any other remedy I ever used." For sale by all dealers.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

GIRLS! LEMON JUICE IS A SKIN WHITENER

How to make a creamy beauty lotion for a few cents.

The juice of two fresh lemons strained into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white makes a whole quarter pint of the most remarkable lemon skin beautifier at about the cost one must pay for a small jar of the ordinary cold creams. Care should be taken to strain the lemon juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan and is the ideal skin softener, whitener and beautifier.

Just try it! Get three-ounces of orchard white at any drug store and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quarter pint of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands.

Taking Big Chances.

It is a great risk to travel without a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, as this preparation cannot be obtained on the trains or steamships. Attacks of bowel complaint are often sudden and very severe, and everyone should go prepared for them. Obtainable everywhere.

Percy Noodles says that when he asked the capitalist's daughter if it were true that her mother was of humble origin she said she didn't know, but papa always seemed the humblest when mama was with him.

Every family without exception should keep this preparation at hand during the hot weather of the summer months. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is worth many times its cost when needed and is almost certain to be needed before the summer is over. You can usually tell how strong a hold alcohol has on a man by the kind of a saloon he is willing to drink in.

RHEUMATISM ARRESTED

Many people suffer the tortures of lame muscles and stiffened joints because of impurities in the blood, and each succeeding attack seems more acute until rheumatism has invaded the whole system.

To arrest rheumatism it is quite as important to improve your general health as to purify your blood, and the cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion is nature's great blood-maker, while its medicinal nourishment strengthens the organs to expel the impurities and rebuild your strength.

Scott's Emulsion is helping thousands every day who could not find other relief. Refuse the alcoholic substitutes.

Biliousness and Stomach Trouble.

"Two years ago I suffered from frequent attacks of stomach trouble and biliousness," writes Miss Emma Verbruyke, Lima, Ohio. "I could eat very little food that agreed with me and I became so dizzy and sick at my stomach at times that I had to take hold of something to keep from falling. Seeing Chamberlain's Tablets advertised I decided to try them. I improved rapidly." Obtainable everywhere.

Ship and Its Gender.

The word "ship" is masculine in French, Italian, Spanish and Portuguese and possesses no sex in Teutonic and Scandinavian, remarks the Marine Journal.

Perhaps it would not be an error to trace the custom of feminizing ships back to the Greeks, who called them by feminine names, probably out of deference to Athene, goddess of the sea.

But the English-speaking sailor, assigns no such reasons. The ship to him is always a lady, even though she be a man-of-war. She possesses a waist, collars, stays, laces, bonnets, ties, ribbons, chains, watches and dozens of other distinctly feminine attributes.

INDIGESTION

If you are ever troubled with indigestion, Chamberlain's Tablets will do you good. They strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. There are hundreds of people who have been restored to health and happiness by the use of Chamberlain's Tablets. When you feel dull and languid after eating you may know that your digestion is faulty, unless you have eaten more than you should. Belching, sour stomach, bloating are symptoms of indigestion and are relieved by taking Chamberlain's Tablets as directed. Indigestion is usually accompanied by constipation and is aggravated by it. Chamberlain's Tablets cause a gentle movement of the bowels, relieving the stipated condition. Chamberlain's Tablets are also most excellent for business. Sold everywhere at 25c.

STOMACH TROUBLE

Mr. Marion Holcomb, of Nancy, Ky., says: "For quite a long while I suffered with stomach trouble. I would have pains and a heavy feeling after my meals, a most disagreeable taste in my mouth. If I ate anything with butter, oil or grease, I would spit it up. I began to have regular sick headache. I had used pills and tablets, but after a course of these, I would be constipated. It just seemed to tear my stomach all up. I found they were no good at all for my trouble. I heard

TOO MUCH BREAD AND MEAT

Menu of the Average Family of Small Income Not Properly Balanced, It Is Declared.

In the investigation made by the Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor it was found that the 75 families of varying nationalities under consideration did not eat what it had been decided they should to meet their food requirements. They almost all exceeded the bread and meat ration.

Incomes were irregular, but whenever there was any money on hand the families plunged in the purchase of meat and bread. The average family had bread or sugar buns and tea for breakfast; at noon something from the delicatessen, such as ham or potato salad, and more tea; and at night meat with potatoes and sometimes another vegetable, bread and coffee. Children had the same diet as their elders. All except the Americanized Italians eat meat at least once and often twice a day whenever they have the price. There is a great reluctance to use peas, beans and other substitutes for potatoes.

Boys, Raise a Sheep.

We are very short on sheep. Our 50,000,000 sheep at their best can only grow enough wool to make each one of us a suit of clothes once in four years. The foreign wool which under normal conditions came to us is now largely diverted to war purposes. Thousands of boys and girls can each raise one or two sheep and find sufficient pasture on their own lawn, thus turning into food and clothes the grass which has previously been thrown away, writes H. H. Windsor in Popular Mechanics. More poultry can be kept, and be fed on the present waste from kitchen and table. We must all learn thrift, and break away from our thoughtless, heedless disregard of waste. Waste is little short of a crime at any time, and fully that in these days when millions are sadly underfed and thousands are actually starving.

Such Is Life.

"Alas!" she cried, "it is my fate. I might have expected it. All my life things have gone wrong with me. Luck has always been against me. I must have been born under an evil star."

"My dear," her friend asked, "what has happened? Why are you so depressed?"

"I have practiced eighteen months to become able to shed tears at will, and now I've got it, I can't get a job either in melodrama or the movies,"—Judge.

A Good Wish.

"Father," said little Tommie, looking up from his "Arabian Nights," "if you could have one wish that you knew would be granted, what would you wish?"

"That's easy, Tommie," said his dad. "I would wish for a dozen more wishes."

WACO MAN GAINS 18 POUNDS ON TANLAC.

"I Feel Better Than I Have in Twenty five Years Says William Truett.

"It's an actual fact. I have gained eighteen pounds on two bottles of Tanlac and now I feel young and better than I have in twenty-five years." This interesting and remarkable statement was made by William O. Truett, watchman for the M. K. & T. railroad, and living at North 121 Sixth street, Waco, Texas.

"About four years ago," he continued, "I began suffering with indigestion and gas on my stomach and going down hill. After eating, I would swell up as tight as a drum and suffer for two or three hours and what I had eaten felt like lumps of lead on my stomach. I was constipated all the time and had to take something every day for this trouble. I had been shooting pains from my hips down which I was told was sciatic rheumatism. I was as nervous as a rat in a trap and it was almost impossible for me to get any sound sleep or rest. I was almost completely run-down and played-out and for two years I couldn't work enough to pay my necessary expenses. I went to Marlin, Texas and spent a hundred dollars for a month's treatment there and it didn't do me a nickle's worth of good. I then went to Missouri and Dallas for treatment and paid out over three hundred dollars but nothing gave me any relief, and it just looked like I was doomed to be a sufferer the rest of my days.

"Then I got to taking this Tanlac I had read and heard so much about. It has been a life saver to me and would be cheap at a hundred dollars a bottle compared to what other treatment and medicine cost me and the suffering I had to endure for those four years. I am just now buying my third bottle and I have had no pain or gas on my stomach in some time and I can just eat anything without it hurting me. I'm not a bit nervous now and just sleep like a child every night. I'm not constipated like I was and the rheumatic pains are all gone out of my hip and leg. In fact, all my miserable feelings are gone now and I just feel new life and energy in every nerve of my body. As I have said, I have gained eighteen pounds and I now weigh one hundred and sixty-eight pounds and feel younger and better than I have in twenty-five years. I wouldn't take any amount of money that could be offered for the good that Tanlac has done me and I would be ungrateful not to tell others what it is that got me out of my suffering and made a well man of me.

Tanlac is sold in Hondo by W. H. Windrow, in Devine by Lion Drug Store in D'Hanis by Louis Carle, and in Lacoste by Dickey Drug Co.

We have no information other than above, and trust that the extent of his injury has been exaggerated.

Bridge in Scripture.

The only mention of a bridge in the canonical Scriptures is indirectly in the principality of Geshur, a district to the northeast of the sea of Galilee. At this place a bridge is said to exist still which is called by the Arabs "the Bridge of the Sons of Jacob." The Romans are credited with being the first constructors of arched bridges over streams.

An average of 95 tons of soil and loose rock is washed into the ocean every year from every square mile of the United States. This estimate does not include the great basin. ### SUIT OF WATER FOR FIREMAN

New Safety Dress Designed to Give Protection to Anyone Standing in Midst of Flames.

The Cincinnati fire department has been testing a new safety dress for the fireman. The man who wears it can stand right in the midst of flames. He need not fear the glowing embers around his feet. He can walk into a fire and it will dwindle away and go out around him.

The dress is made of fireproofed canvas of two thicknesses, between which water flows constantly. The water enters by means of a perforated brass tube which encircles the neck between the two thicknesses of canvas and flows down between the layers through the arms and legs, finding exits at the finger tips and around the soles of the feet, says the Popular Mechanics Magazine.

Water flowing only between the two thicknesses of canvas would not offer complete protection to the wearer. To keep him cool and comfortable while standing in the hottest fire, two brass perforated tubes encircle the helmet and give him a constant shower bath from the outside as well as within the folds of the uniform. This not only keeps him from becoming overheated, but extinguishes the fire around him.

Work for Objectors.

Of the conscientious objectors working under the home office scheme 655 are on agriculture, land reclamation and forestry; 262 are roadmaking; 140 are on waterworks; 96 are growing vegetables; 88 are cutting timber; 46 are engaged in the manufacture of artificial fertilizers; 41 are doing clerical work; 26 are building in connection with a farm colony for disabled soldiers; 25 are quarrying, and 25 are employed in oil-cake works, says the London Times. The remainder, 674, are following various occupations at the work centers at Warwick and Wakefield. During the year 3,700 objectors have been arrested and court-martialed. Of these, 1,500 at least are at present in prison or in military custody.

3,951,153 Words of War.

The number of words it has taken to keep at least one neutral nation informed of the news is told in a statement of the news handled by the Spanish Wireless Telegraph company in 1916. A total of 4,000,000 words was transmitted from the various belligerent nations, and at Madrid and Barcelona the radio-telegrams were distributed to the press and to subscribers in the form of bulletins, blue for Austro-German news and yellow for that of the entente, distributed three times a day.

The number of words received from the entente nations greatly exceeded the count from the central empire, the former being 2,329,158 as compared with 1,621,995.

Stuck to His Rule.

He had just been discharged from the service, owing to wounds, and thought to raise a few pounds by writing his reminiscences of 12 months' fighting. Having completed the manuscript while in hospital, he offered it to a publisher for £100. It was a very small volume, and such a price made the publisher raise his eyes in surprise and inquire the reasons for such a demand. "My dear sir," replied the author, "it has been a point of honor with me, as a soldier, always to sell my life as dearly as possible."—London Chronicle.

SOME REMARKS

Sometimes it's mighty hard to listen to a man boast even when we see the pleasure it gives him. You may have observed that the doctors are still a hopeless minority in believing that kisses are poisonous.

Know lots of men, but we don't think we ever ran across one who doesn't do more work than any other man on the face of the earth.

POPULAR SCIENCE

The codfish has the reputation of being the goat of the sea. It will eat anything.

The pearl is the only gem that does not require the lapidary's art to bring out its beauty.

The rapid growth of vegetation of the Arctic regions has been attributed by some investigators to the action of the electrical currents in the air.

An effort is being made to adapt the horse chestnut to the human dietary. The nuts are more than half starch and sugar, with some proteid and fat, and are nutritious.

A "milk" made by the Chinese from a native bean is shown by analysis to have a specific gravity of 1.029 and a fat content of 3.125, contrasted with a specific gravity of 1.029 and a fat content of 3.9 for good average cow's milk.

EVERY-DAY COOKING HINTS

A steak is one of the finest selections for a main dish for a meal. A large steak can be used for three meals if cut properly.

First, the tenderloin can be served as filet of beef; the next cut used is the sirloin, and the next is the top, which can be served as hamburger steak, meat loaf or a real old-fashioned Irish stew. But don't forget the onions.

Any steak is better for the addition of onions. A steak smothered in onions is truly delectable.

There is not a woman in this country who can afford to be without a stock pot. Hotel cooks always have one on hand, and any soup can be made most readily from it. Add a little tomato for tomato soup. If cream soup is wanted, add milk and a little flour for thickening. If vegetable is the flavor desired, add some vegetables, and so on through a variety of soups.

Liver of lamb is just as good as calves' liver if properly prepared. Steam it, dip it in flour and add one-half cupful of water for gravy.

Instead of smoking up the house by getting fat from suet, put the suet in boiling water.—Mrs. M. A. Wilson in the Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Frozen Fruit Salad.

Cut one orange, a slice of grapefruit and one-half can each of pineapple, white cherries, pears and peaches in the size of half a cherry. Mix the fruit with the juice of half a lemon, a half cupful of mayonnaise and a half pint of whipped cream. Pour into the freezer and turn the crank slowly until the mixture is frozen. Then pack in molds and let stand one hour. Serve cut in slices with lettuce heart leaves. If molds are not available, pack in freezer and serve as ice cream. This quantity is sufficient for fifteen people.

Nut Prune Souffle.

Pick over and wash one-half pound of prunes, soak one hour in cold water and boil until soft. After removing the stones obtain the meat from them and add to the prunes. Then add one cupful of sugar, one inch of cinnamon bark, one and one-third cupfuls of boiling water and simmer ten minutes. Dilute one-third cupful of cornstarch with enough cold water to pour easily, add to the prune mixture and soak five minutes. Then add the whites of two eggs beaten stiff, and one-half cupful chopped pecan meats. Mould, chill and serve with cream.
